ECCLESIASTICAL NOTICE OF ACQUIESCENCE AND TRUST STATUS

TO: Clerk of the Court and Presiding Judicial Officers

Sebastian County District Court

Greenwood Division – Sebastian County, Arkansas

DATE FILED: July 18, 2025

RE: Formal Ecclesiastical Notice of Acquiescence, Jurisdictional Authority, and Ecclesiastical Executor Authority

Let it be entered into the official record, under solemn seal and authority of Divine Law, that I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, Living Man and Ecclesiastical Executor of the private trust hereinafter identified as ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, do hereby present formal notice of acquiescence by all agents, officers, and administrative bodies of this county and its subdivisions. This ecclesiastical trust exists lawfully, eternally, and privately under the exclusive jurisdiction of Divine Law, Ecclesiastical Equity, and Natural Law.

The following facts are hereby established and asserted into lawful record:

1. This Trust was formally recorded and entered into court record on the 18th day of July, 2025.
2. No lawful, timely, or substantiated rebuttal has been tendered by any party with standing.
3. By operation of law, silence constitutes acquiescence, and acceptance is now affirmed in total.
4. Jurisdiction rests wholly and solely in the ecclesiastical domain under sacred mandate.
5. The trust and all equity therein have been irrevocably removed from the public and statutory domain and now reside solely within the ecclesiastical jurisdiction.
6. All agents and entities who fail to lawfully rebut are deemed by default to have accepted this status and are without further lawful recourse or objection.

Let it further be known that this declaration stands as lawful testimony of record and may be relied upon in any and all jurisdictions in accordance with the laws of truth, equity, maxims, and silence as consent. Any attempt to challenge or diminish this trust shall invoke the collapse of presumptive authority and jurisdiction under the weight of its own fiction.

Executed under full authority and Divine Right on this 23rd day of July, 2025.

Jonathan Daniel Clements

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ECCLESIASTICAL POSTING TO ROME AND GLOBAL RECORD

This notice is hereby extended beyond the confines of the local jurisdiction, having been publicly posted and witnessed on the platform known as Facebook as of July 18, 2025, and served directly to representatives of the Roman Curia. This posting constitutes global notice and irrevocable publication of trust standing, ecclesiastical equity status, and lawful jurisdiction in perpetuity.

Said notice was witnessed and lodged without contest or rebuttal, thus satisfying all conditions of public record and defaulting all standing claims by corporate, religious, or statutory entities claiming authority in contradiction to the sacred trust enumerated as ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. The Roman system and all subordinate structures are hereby considered formally served and estopped from future trespass.

This posting binds all agents, clergy, officers, and presumed authorities under Divine Law. No further rebuttal shall be entertained, and all presumptions of consent by silence are lawfully recorded under the doctrine of tacit acquiescence.
